French Affairs.

Paris, 27.—De Freycinet, Andrieux, De Chanzy, Say and Ferry had interviews with President Grévy yesterday.

The Times correspondent announced that De Freycinet has been entrusted with the formation of a cabinet.

Gambetta's speech in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, was very eloquent, and was applauded even by his adversaries, especially the part in which he repudiated the insinuations that he aspired to the dictatorship. After the speech, he proposed that the clause in favor of the scrutiny of lists be inserted in the committee's resolution, that the final paragraph of the resolution which governs the process, namely: "the committee is it is expedient to revise constitutional laws, be voted upon first. The proposal was made principally in the hope that the Chamber would not satisfy itself by reversing the decision it had just recorded on Barodet's amendment in favor of the revision of the constitution in its entirety. The Chamber adopted the paragraph by a vote of 232 to 227. Gambetta then announced his resignation. By this time he appears to have been the country as having been overthrown for opposing a wild scheme for indefinite reform. Other votes on the bill were taken subsequently. After the sitting, Gambetta appeared to be cheerful and confident.

London, 28.—The statement of the Bank of France, shows an increase in the past week of 23,000,000 francs gold and 300,000 silver.

Paris, 28.—De Freycinet has undertaken the formation of a cabinet. Jules Ferry will probably be minister of public instruction and Leon Say, minister of finance.

Garden City Gabbles.

Chicago, 27.—J. Cohn & Co., jobbers in tobacco, have failed, through having attempted to do a large business on small capital. Liabilities, $50,000; assets, $40,000. Their debts are almost entirely in the east.

Harvard alumni hold their annual banquet to-night.

At a meeting this afternoon of the Chicago Driving Park Association, the programme for the summer trotting meeting was adopted. The meeting will begin on July 17, and last a week. Eighteen stakes are announced, with purses aggregating $37,000. Ten thousand dollars has been set aside for special purses. In offering them due consideration will be given to such trotters as "Maud S.," "St. Julian," "Trickett," "Hopful" and others, whose records prevent them entering class races. It has been found necessary to bar "Little Brown Jug" from the racing class. A special purse at the stake will be offered for "Phil Thompson," "Sweetheart" and "Fred Crocker." Two of the events will be stake races, with $1,000 added in each case by the association.

Eads' Project.

New York, 27.—Times Washington: The supporters of the Eads' bill for ship railway across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, say the new railway line from California to New Orleans will be able to make the route so low that British freight vessels in the grain trade around Cape Horn will go out of the business, and that after the vessels have been driven away the railway company will move its rates so high that grain growers on the Pacific Slope will be at the mercy of the monopoly. On the other hand, they declare that the construction of the ship railway will open a temporary line which will prevent the Southern and Texas Pacific roads from oppressing producers. This argument leads Eads to believe that he will have the support of American farmers. He is on hand at the beginning of the session of Congress prepared to spare no effort in the attempt to accomplish his purpose. Thus far his sanguine expectations do not seem to be warranted by the sentiment of the body from which he must secure his subsidy, if he secures it at all, on this side of the ocean.

Hitting Hurlbut

New York, 28.—Times editorial: The time has now come when it is an easy matter to write the nose of Chili, which was practically what the late secretary of state instructed Mr. Trescott to do. There was, and is, however, occasion to take our disgraced and stock jobbing minister at Lima, Mr. Stephen A. Hurlbut, by the ears, to haul him thereby to Belvidere, Ill., and there deposit him in the keeping of his friends until in the inconceivable remote future this government may have further use for his diplomatic services. The meddling of Mr. Hurlbut with that which was none of his business, was the primary cause of Calderon's fall and our South American difficulties. The terms of peace outlined in the dispatch are such as Chili reasonably may and probably will exact. But that is a matter with which we shall have very little to do, now that Blaine is no longer secretary of state.

Nihilist Literature.

New York, 27.—Herald's St. Petersburg: A fresh number of the Nihilist journal is being circulated, and sent under envelope to the court, and to ministers and dignitaries, and to regiments of the empire. It is dated December 12th (24th new style). It was probably printed and introduced from abroad. In its leading article the editor says: "The coronation of the Czar, fixed for the 25th of May, will never take place, therefore make no preparations for it. Many things will occur before the 25th of May. Do not throw away your money uselessly; it is simply ridiculous and disgusting."

Poisoned.

Corinth, Ky., 28.—A family named Romano, living in the outskirts of the town, were poisoned the night before last at supper. It is supposed that arsenic was in the corn bread. Five of the family are lying at the point of death. No investigation.

MONETARY AND STOCKS.

New York, Jan. 28, 1882
Money, 3 1/2; gov't; quiet, unchanged; stocks opened strong, closed weak; W. Union, 8 1/2; Quicksilver, 12; Pacific, 12 1/2; Moriscos, 4; Wells, Fargo, 12 1/2; New York Central, 130 1/2; Erie, 40 1/2; Panama, 130; Union Pacific, 117 1/2; bonds, 115 1/2; Central Pacific, 85 1/2; bonds, 114; same, 1/2.

Blaine's Blundering.

New York, 28.—The Times says: The publication of Blaine's letter to Lowell, in which he recalls the ancient controversy over the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, probably closes the record of the ex-secretary's muddling with the isthmus question. For more than twenty years that controversy has been at rest, and the causes that gave it interest and vitality, have long ceased to exist. The subject has now quite a new aspect, and might well have been dealt with without raking up the dead and gone disputes of Buchanan's time. If it is taken up again, it is to be hoped that it will be discussed in a different spirit from that which led Blaine into his ambitious but short-sighted design of arousing national enthusiasm by getting into unnecessary complications. Nothing, but inter-oceanic canal projects furnishes any occasion for dealing with the question, and they are not in a position to make it possible to deal with it in a practical way.

New York, 28.—A special to the Post from Washington says: Bob Ingersoll says he believes Blaine's policy as now published will meet with the admiration and approval of the country. It is, he says, in the line of free one, as against a tariff government, which the world is outgrowing. It is natural and proper, if not inevitable, he says, that the relations, business as well as political, will be intimate with the republic, clustering around the isthmus of Panama. We shall soon be riding in Blaine's cars to the City of Mexico, and business interests of all sorts will grow close and important with the countries thus brought into contact with us. Friends of Blaine's policy say it will lift politics out of common places, and recall to the American people the lofty ideal of dignity and rights of man, which actuated our forefathers in the more heroic periods of our history. Touching this aspect of the case, shrewd observers here say that the weak point in Blaine's policy is the character of the people whom it proposes to assist in self elevation. Were they of the stern stuff of the Anglo-Saxon race, and already struggling upward from an innate unconquerable love of liberty, their efforts might appeal to our sympathies and assistance, but the disposition of these people is slothful, moody and untractable, nor have they themselves shown a strong desire for such a confederation as is proposed.

Casualties.

Newburg, N. Y., 27.—The wheel mill in Ladin & Rand's powder works, was blown up to-day.

Oil City, 27.—A boiler in Logan's machine works, exploded; Tonhill, foreman, was instantly killed and a number of others seriously hurt.

New York, 27.—At a dumping ground on East 99th street, Benjamin Burns, aged 14, picked up from the debris, which appeared to be a tomato can filled with grease. He threw it into a bonfire, when an explosion immediately occurred, violent enough to throw a man on a keener in an adjoining street from his stoop into the street. Dense black smoke and a cloud of ashes obscured the scene. When it drifted away, ten persons were found lying in the street. Benjamin Burns was killed. The wounded are Mary O'Keefe, Eliza Jones, John Ross, Joseph Jones, Albert Jones, Catherine Miller, Michael Palermo and Thomas Ward, some severely wounded. The cause is thought to have contained nitro-glycerine.

Lafayette, 28.—The two Italians, supposed killed by a bear, escaped death.

Stoubeville, Ohio, 28.—Three deck hands of the steamer Kate Stockade were drowned, by jumping when she struck a bridge.

Pittsburg, 28.—The lower parts of Pittsburg and Allegheny are under water. No great damage yet, and the rivers are stationary.

Sault Ste. Marie, 28.—The Lake Shore railway had a collision and wreck of two freight trains on Thursday last.

Waterville, Me., 28.—A new boiler in the mill of Kennebec Fringing Company, Fairfield, exploded this morning with terrific force. The son of ex-warden Rice was killed; and John Avery, foreman, J. Lemar, fireman, and Isaac Farkey, engineer, were buried in the ruins; George McKee and John South were badly wounded, and several others were slightly injured. The under-work of the mill is on fire.

"The 306."

St. Louis, 28.—J. M. Kershaw, on order of the state legislature, has struck off 330 bronze medals to commemorate the steady voting of the 306 at the Chicago convention. The affair has been kept very secret. The medals are perfectly round, 2 1/2 inches in diameter, and 1/4 thick; weight, nearly a pound. The profile of Grant on the center of the face is crowned with laurel and oak leaves. Outside this is the record of the thirty-six Grant ballots in a complete circle, the number of each ballot that vote cast, ranging from 302 to 313. On the center of the reverse side, "Commemorative of the 36 ballots of the old guard," for Ulysses S. Grant for President, Republican National Convention, Chicago, June, 1880."

Mormons and Indians.

Washington, 28.—Secretary Kirkwood, referring to rumors that Mormons are inciting Indians in the west, said he had very little faith in the story. While it was undoubtedly true that the Mormons might seek the friendship of the Indians in the event of trouble with the United States, it could not be possible the Mormons would attempt to defy the United States government, as an effort of that sort would have a very different result from that which attended the early campaign in Salt Lake.
